COURSE	DEC 5: SaAm-Chim (Korean Four Needle Acupuncture Technique) is an extremely effective technique that is not very well-known by Western acupuncturists. It is also quick, easy and effective for the acupuncturist to use in a high volume clinic or a community acupuncture setting. By studying the theory behind the Four Needle Technique, one can learn the true meaning of the Six energies (Taiyin &amp; Yangming, Shaoyin &amp; Taiyang, Jueyin &amp; Shaoyang). Not only can this be used clinically to treat disease on both the physical and emotional levels, but also to gain an advanced understanding of meridian energies as well. DEC 6: Korean Meridian Theory Acupuncture had been practised in the ancient Korea royal palace. The treatment was for the King or the King's family, it is very gentle and follow the natural flow of meridian. This theory divides 12 meridians into three circuits (Earth, Heaven, Man) and the treatment will be prescribed accordingly. One will learn channel dynamics instead of point indications. They will also learn order of treatment, order of needling, how to set up the treatment protocol, and how to use special points, i.e, Yuan-source, Luo-connecting, Xi-cleft, Front-mu, Back-shu and Eight confluent points.
LECTURER	H.B. Kim, LAc, PhD, developed a passion for Oriental Medicine in his native country, Korea, and has been practicing in the United States for nearly a decade. Years of following the masters, practicing and teaching have earned him both academic and clinical distinction. He authored the Handbook of Oriental Medicine and Minibook of Oriental Medicine, and has co-authored leading edge acupuncture and Chinese herbology computer software programs with Qpuncture, Inc. His passion is teaching unique Korean style Oriental medicine techniques to the Western trained practitioner and he has successfully taught hundreds of acupuncturists all over the United States. H.B. is teaching a new series of CEU courses (CA/NCCAOM approved), which will enable attendees to learn these highly effective and sophisticated techniques from Korean style Acupuncture and Herbology. H.B. is a dynamic educator and will provide information to take your practice to a higher level of proficiency immediately.
